GREENEVILLE

Personal Mention About the Village—Burned 804 Spools—Will Move to Hartford.

The addition at Scott & Clark's, 22x 35, is about half done.

Albert Heber of Boswell avenue is ill at his home, with stomach trouble.

Jeremiah O'Brien of Sixth street is getting over a week's attack of the grip.

Mrs. Bessie Milles of Wollaston, Conn., is visiting Bruno Pedace of Central avenue.

Mrs. William Kramer, Sr., is recovering from several days' illness at her home on Central avenue.

Harlow T. Ladd of Central avenue was a visitor in Battle Monday. Mr.
Ladd is recovering rapidly after his recent illness.

Mrs. Carrie Farnham of North Main street is spending the winter with her grandmother, Mrs. W. H. Beebe of North Rostert, Vt.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kramer have returned, after spending several days in New York, where they visited the horse show at Madison Square garden.

Gustava Rydholm began work Monday in the office of the Shetucket company, taking the place of Frank Yeomans, Jr., who moves to Hartford this week.

The family of Frank W. Yeomans are to move Thursday to Hartford, where Mr. Yeomans has been employed for some weeks, and their departure from Greenville will be regretted by many.

A horse ran away on North Main street near the Worcester mill, Saturday afternoon, the wagon being caught in the car tracks, the horse freeing himself and the two young men being left seated in their horseless carriage.

Harold and Joseph Carver McNeeley of Smith avenue, East Norwich, celebrated their Thanksgiving by burning a collection of 804 empty spools at their home, last Thursday evening.
Last Thanksgiving they had a display of 627 spools.

Shot a Wildcat.

On Saturday, Horace Palmer of Clark's Falls, who was out with John Geer of North Stonington and his new dog from the south shot an animal about three feet long, which weighed about twenty pounds. It had a cat-like head and a short tail, with very large claws.

Some pronounced it a lynx, but others said it was a bobcat, sometimes called a wildcat. It was a rare animal to be seen in this section. The hunters found it in the woods west of Pendleton Hill.

College Chum of Yantic Pastor.

Rev. Frederick Carman of Denver, Col., has accepted the call to become rector of St. Peter's Episcopal church of Plymouth. This also means that he will have charge of the historic St.
Matthew's church of East Plymouth and oversight of St. Mark's mission of Terryville. He will take up the work about January 15, taking the place made vacant by the death of Rev. Herbert Mitchell by drowning last August. He is a college chum of Rev. M. J. Simpson of Yantic.

School Boys at Y. M. C. A.

Accepting invitations from the Young Men's Christian association, the boys of the West Chelsea school district will be at the association gymnasium this afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock and will be given an afternoon of enjoyment under the direction of Physical Director Bandlow, who will put them through marching, drills and two games of basketball. The closing number on the bill will be ice cream, which will be heartily received by the boys.

DSMASTED HULL OF SCHOONER WASHED ASHORE.

Lost in Big Gale of Nov. 10—Fourteen Persons Missing.
North Sydney, N. S., Nov. 29.—Fourteen persons are supposed to have perished in the wreck of the schooner Little Jap, which sailed from Deer Island, N. F., on November 9, for a trip along the New Foundland coast. Since that date nothing had been heard of the vessel until today, when the dismasted hull was washed ashore at Red Cliff, N. F.

The schooner is supposed to have been lost in the great gale of November 10. The government dispatched two steamers at the time to search for the missing craft, but they found no trace of the vessel. The missing men all lived in Newfoundland.

UNION CHORUS IS ORGANIZED

Officers Elected, Executive Committee Chosen and Constitution and By Laws Adopted.

Organization of the union chorus was effected Monday night at a meeting held in the vestry of the Central Baptist church. James L. Case, who was made chairman pro tem, at a meeting held at the same place a week ago, called the meeting to order, and the constitution and by-laws were presented which had been prepared by a committee consisting of Mrs. F. C.
Wright, Mrs. C. H. Ricketts and Fitch Allen. These were accepted and adopted as presented. Meetings are to be held at such times as they are called by the president. Part of his program during the evening was to present a list of names provided for, and a fee of 25 cents for new members joining. About 75 signed cards as charter members.

Frank L. Arnold was elected president. Ebenezer Allen vice president, Mrs. H. R. Sargent secretary and Ernest M. Newbury treasurer. The executive committee comprises the officers and the following: one from each church: Arthur H. Blackledge, Greenville Congregational; Stephen H. Peckham, Greenville Baptist; A. E. Beckwith, Park Congregational; A. W.
Dickey, First Congregational; Miss Marguerite Wulf, Broadway Congregational; Mrs. F. H. Bushnell, Bean Hill Methodist; Mrs. Robert McNeely, Greenville Methodist. The four officers represent respectively the Central Baptist, Second Congregational, First Baptist and Trinity Methodist church.
The director is to be named by the executive committee.

After the business meeting an hour was spent in singing the Alexander hymns under the leadership of George A. Turner. Joseph S. Adams was the placardist. The chorus sings at the meeting Friday evening at the Norwich Town Congregational church.

SUDDEN DEATH OF OF EMIL R. GERBER.

Passed Away at His Home from a Shock After Returning from the City.

Having returned from a trip to the center of the city on Monday afternoon, Emil R. Gerber, aged 33, was seized with a shock at his home, No.
25 Baltic street, and passed away at 5:45 o'clock. Part of his program during the afternoon was to see his doctor, as he complained of chills, although he told his daughter-in-law that he had some other things to do. He would not have the doctor called to the house and called at his office, doing his errands and gotten back home before he was stricken. The doctor was at once called then, but he was beyond help.

Mr. Gerber was one of the old German residents of the city. He was born in Germany April 27, 1877, but most of his long and active life has been spent in this country, and in Norwich, although he has resided at Hartford and Colchester. Gerber was an upholsterer of much ability, and was employed in the old car shops here for many years. He has resided for many years in Baltic street and had a large number of friends. His wife died in high esteem and regarded as a true and loyal friend. His wife died a number of years ago.

He is survived by one son, Rudolph Gerber of this city, who is now working at Torrington, and a daughter, Mrs. Frank Burdick of Providence.
He leaves a brother in Hartford and one grandson.

OBITUARY.

Rev. Jesse E. Heald.

Rev. Jesse E. Heald, one of the oldest Episcopalian ministers in this country and a resident of Torrington, died early Saturday evening at the Torrington hospital, after a short illness of apoplexy. Mr. Heald was taken from his home to Hartford on November 24.
Mr. Heald was born in Mt. Holly, Vt., December 26, 1834, the son of Elliott and Jerusha (Wellman) Heald.
His father was born in Granville, N.
Y., in 1810, and his mother in Dorset, Vt., in 1812. He was a direct descendant of Captain John Averil, an early settler of Westminster, Vt. His father was a dealer and worker in marble and was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church, of which his brother, John Heald, was a minister.

Rev. Mr. Heald's preparation for his calling was surrounded by many difficulties. His family, formerly one of wealth and always one of influence,

REV. JESSE E. HEALD.

was in reduced circumstances, and his education was entirely obtained as a result of own industry. As a boy he worked in a woolen mill, his daily companion being a Greek reader.
When his parents moved to Amherst he was but 4 years old, and his early schooling was there. He was graduated from Wesleyan Academy, Wilbraham, Mass., in 1853. When 18 years of age he studied under the influences of the Methodist Episcopal church, and at 21 was regularly ordained a minister of that denomination.

He was pastor of the Gales Ferry Methodist Episcopal church when it was built and dedicated in 1857, and October 6, 1867, delivered a sermon on the occasion of the celebration of its 10th anniversary. He held several charges, and when but 25 years of age became a candidate for orders in the Protestant Episcopal church. He was ordained deacon on June 13, 1860, by Bishop John Williams, and was appointed assistant minister at Trinity church, Newtown, in 1862 he came to what is now Trinity church, Tarrington. Rev. Mr. Heald was next appointed rector of the Episcopal church at Pine Meadow, a place which he filled for three years. He next had charge of Grace church at Saybrook, and the fine stone church, costing $40,000, was erected during his pastorate and dedicated, free from debt. The rectory was also built through his efforts. He remained at Saybrook for ten years, going from there to Millville, Mass., where he remained for six years. In June, 1884, he returned to Torrington as rector of Trinity church, a place which he filled at the time of his death.

Rev. Mr. Heald married on May 20, 1855, Miss Betsey Tilden, daughter of Walter and Rebecca (Jones) Tilden of North Coventry, who survives him.
Two sons were born to them, William Elliott and Robert H., both of whom are now dead. As pastor Rev. Mr.
Heald met with considerable success.
He has frequently been called to officiate in ministerial work at various towns about Torrington, not only by members of the Episcopal denomination, but of others as well. He was an able minister and in his relations with men was kind hearted and general and was greatly loved not only by members of his own parish, but by all who knew him. Besides his wife he leaves a sister, Anna, now Mrs.
Tracy of Amherst, Mass.

On Monday afternoon the Waterford station of the Central Vermont railroad was totally destroyed by fire. It was a small affair near Harrison's.
The cause is not known.

IN THE PROBATE COURT.

Will of Mrs. Catherine A. Harris Admitted to Probate—Miss H. A. Harris Executrix and C. W. Barnes and G. L. Hewitt Appraisers.

In the probate court on Monday the will of Mrs. Catherine A. Harris was admitted to probate and Miss Hattie A. Harris, as provided in the will, qualified as executrix. Judge Ayling named Chester W. Barnes and Gilbert L. Hewitt as appraisers. By the will, which was drawn August 15, 1905, each of her children is left a dwelling, while the residue is left to Miss Hattie A. Harris and at her death to be divided among the others or their heirs.

TAFTVILLE

New Teacher at Wequonoc School—Napoleon Fournier Able to Return to Palmer—Notes.

The Ponemah company lost another horse by death Monday.

John Beauregard, who has been suffering for a week with a boil on his neck, is much better.

Work has been started on the slate roof of the new parochial school at the corner of Hunters avenue and South B street.

Mr. and Mrs. Deuononne Daunais and Mr. and Mrs. William Chaput were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Tetreault in Jewett City Sunday.

Unclaimed letters at the Taftville postoffice are addressed to Emmanuel Brodeur, Wilfrid Dragon, Mrs. Clara-inda Dragon, Bernard Deoit, J. Gar-marco.

The regular meeting of the Naturalization club, President Joseph Caron, presiding, was held Sunday afternoon, but beyond the discussion of various topics of local interest, no business was transacted.

The Wequonoc school opened Monday after the Thanksgiving recess with one change in its teaching force. Miss Mary Sullivan of Williamstown began teaching a first grade class in the place of Mrs. Muriel Whitman of Providence, who has resigned after teaching since the latter part of October.

Napoleon Fournier, son of Peter Fournier, who has been laid up for the last seven weeks, with an injured leg as the result of a trolley smash in Palmer, Mass., has so far recovered that he will be able to return to his work as motorman in that place this week. Mr. Fournier plans to start today.
